University of San Diego President's Club Dinner

Set Jan. 24 --

-- Miss Helen Hayes is guest of honor

Legendary actress Helen Hayes will be the honored guest of President and Mrs. Author E. Hughes at the annual USD President's Club dinner set for 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 24.

Three hundred are expected to attend the dinner, which will be preceded by a 7 p.m. cocktail reception.

The black tie event takes place at the university's new $11 million University Center, which opened Jan. 12.

Mr. Daniel F. Mulvihill, president of the President's Club, will make welcoming remarks at the dinner following the invocation by the Rev. Msgr. I. Brent Eagen.

Dr. Hughes and the Most Rev. Leo T. Maher, Bishop of the San Diego Catholic Diocese and chairman of the USD Board of Trustees, will make a special presentation to Miss Hayes.

Miss Hayes is scheduled to make brief remarks.

Also on the program, for introductions, are the Rev. William B. Wasson, OFM, and the Rev. Richard Frechette, CP.

Father Wasson operates Nuestros Pequenos Hermanos, an orphanage in Cuernavaca, Mexico that he founded in 1954. Thousands of boys and girls have been raised at the orphanage. Miss Hayes is on its board of directors.

During the cocktail hour and dinner, entertainment will be provided by classical guitarist George Svoboda.

After dinner, some 32 of Father Wasson's orphans will sing and dance. The children are being bused in from Cuernavaca, a five-day trek. They are scheduled to arrive Friday and tour Sea World on Saturday. Overnight accommodations will be in campus housing.

For more information, please contact John Nunes at 260-4682.
